ELOSE OF PATTERSON MURDER TRIAL.

bequel to the Refu al of a Kentucky Swaln's Attentions to a Blue Grass Belle-Kentucklan 10 Be Tried For Kalsing Dollars to Tens.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 17.-There was a large crowd gathered around the courthouse eagerly awaiting the close of the trial of Walter C. McAlister, Wiiiiam A. Death and Andrew J. Campbell, for the murder of Jennie Bosschieter, the slik mili employe. The accused men were apparently more hopeful Thursday morning than they had been at any time since the trial began. Before they were taken from the jall to the courtroom they talked together and seemed to entertain the bellef that their testlmony had a favorable effect on the jury, and that Friday at the latest would see them once more at liberty.

As soon as court opened Assistant Prosecutor Ralph Shaw began his address to the jury. He said a killing that occurred in the perpetration of a felony constituted murder in the first degree. "We have learned," he continued, "that Jennie Bosschieter was not quite 18 years old. She is entitled to the presumption that she was a virtuons, honest and upright giri. There ls no evidence to the contrary. Her physical condition was such that she must have been able to take two or three drinks without bad effect." He gave a brief survey of the incidents of the evening and night of Oct. 18, as they were brought out by the witnesses for the state, in conclusion, Mr. Shaw said: "All the defendants are equally guilty as principals in this crime. The stories told by defendants on the witness stand proved a miserabie fallure as a defense. Such a defense is worthy of no consideration. Their story is to be welgired by what they said before, no matter" under what eircumstances they told lt. With these facts presented the state is compelled to ask you, putting aside ail sympathy, but la the name of justice, for a verdlet of murder in the first Judge Francis Scott made the closing argument for the defense.

Ferrell's l'etillon Refused.

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—The state board of pardons refused the application of Rosslya Ferrell, who murdered Express Agent Lane, for commutation of death sentence to imprisonment for life. The board in an exhaustive report to the governor discusses the law and the testimony, the gist of its conclusions being that no reason is given why the board should intervene. The only hope now for Ferrell is an appeal to the governor from the decision of the board. In the report the three grounds in the petition, youth, previous good conduct and good behavior since arrest are treated as one, and the report says the same might be sald of every person executed in the electric chair in Ohio, with one exception. It is also declared that Ferrell could have been convicted without his confession. As to the piea of temporary insanity, the report shows that the crime was committed with fuil deliberation. Sequel to Shooting Shotwell.

Corbin, Ky., Jan. 17.—The blowing up of White's grocery where Rolla White, who had shot James Shotwell, was awaiting officers to put him under arrest, was supposed to have caused the death of several persons. Mrs. Susan Cox, an Innocent bystander, was found dead from a buliet wound outside the building. Sheriff Sutton and posse made a thorough search of the White premises. They found one dead body in the debris, that of Sutton Faris, a painter. In a rear room, not damaged by the explosion, they found the two White brothers and placed them under arrest. It is uncertain what further action will be taken by Shotwell's friends in the way of vengeance. White had shot and fatally wounded James Shotwell for being refused to keep company with Shotweil's daughter.

Divorce Specialist Indicted.

Buffalo, Jan, 17 .- Eight Indictments against David C. Fitzgerald, an attorney for subornation of perjury lu different divorce cases, were reported by the grand jury. During December reports of alleged lrregular action in certain divorce cases eame to the notice of the supreme court, and Justice Hooker granted an order for Fitzgerald's arrest, charging subornation of perjury. The information on which the warrant was issued was sworn to by Mrs. Ellzabeth Garlipp, who charged that Fitzgeraid procured a witness

VENEZUELAN MUDDLE.

Jastro's Conduct Is Not Agreeable to

State Department. Washington, Jan. 17 .- The latest advice from Venezuela was a short message from Minister Loomis indicating that the revolt, which broke out in the barracks at Caracas, had been suppressed. Such information as has reached here shows that while efforts to straighten out the complications with Venezuela are much embarrassed by the growth of the revalutionary movements, for there are really two, the issue is being made directly with the Venezuelan government, as represented by the defacto preshient, Castro It is claimed that his agents are threatening to selze the arms of the New York and Bermudez companies employes, which movement the Scorpion is to prevent If she can reach the point of trouble in time. State department officials regret that the Castro element is not meeting the advances of the United States in what they consider a reasonable and conciliatory spirit, but is showing a disposition to resent the department's request that no arbitrary action be taken re specting the asphalt concessions until the incumbents have had an opportunity to assert their legal rights in the matter. The aspect therefore is regarded as unpromising for a speedy settlement, and the ease will require to be handled with great delicacy in order to avoid an open rupture.

Bakers' Secon i Sirike. . New York, Jan. 17 .- A new strike of Hebrew bakers commenced on the east side and about 500 men are out. After the bakers won their recent strike about 1,500 went back to work in 140 bakeshops. Since then the owners of 50 of the bakeshops have refused to discharge their nonunion men or to make them joln the Hebrew bakers' union, and this is the cause of the latest strike. Proprietors of the shops claim that while the first strike was in progress the nonunion men who continued to work formed the independent Hebrew bakers' union. This organization is not recognized by the United Hebrew Trades, and is looked upon as a "scab" union.

GALA OCCASION FOR HIS FRIENDS.

His Desk, Where Hanna Formerly Sal, Smathered With Flowers. House Considering Bill to Revise the Postal Laws.

Washington, Jan. 17 .- Matthew Stanley Quay, elected to the senate from Pennsylvania, presented himself at the bar of the senate and took the oath of office. The gaileries of the senate were thronged by a gay and brilliant assemblage long before the hour of meeting. Scores of Mr. Quay's friends, personal and political, had come from all parts of Pennsylvania, presented himself at the bar of the senate and took the oath of office. The gailerles of the senate were thronged by a gay and brilliant assemblage long before the hour of meeting. Scores of Mr. Quay's friends, personal and political, had come from all parts of Pennsylvania to witness the final scene of a great contest-a scene which, by them was made a gaia oceasion. Mr. Quay was assigned the second seat in the back row on the Republican side, the desk formerly occupled by Mr. Hanna of Ohio. An hour before the senate convened elaborate and benutiful ilorai pieces began to be piled on and around the new senator's desk. By the time the senate was called to order, the messengers found it impossible to place to advantage any more tioral offerings. Not in the history of the senate has a single senator been the recipient of such floral glfts. One of the handsomest pieces was a huge keystone arch of white immortelles, the keystone being of deep red immortelies. It was sev eral feet high. Flowers came to the capitol ilterally by the wagonload, and it was found impossible to display al of them in the senate chamber. Many of them were allowed to remala in the senate corridors. Just before the senate convened Mr. Quay entered the chamber. As he was recognized by his friends tremendous applause swept over the crowded galleries. Meantime. Mr. Quay received cordial congratulations of his colleagues on the lioor of the senate. As soon as the senate conveaed Mr. Penrose presented the credentials of Mr. Quay, which were read and placed on file. Mr. Penrose requested that the oath of office be administered to his coileague. No objection was offered and Mr. Penrose escorted Mr. Quay to the desk of President Pro Tem Frye. Before taking the oath Mr. Quay shook hands cordially with Mr. Frye. The president pro tear previously had announced to the gaileries that no applause or demonstrations of approval or disapproval were permitted under the rules of the senate. Thus no demonstration occurred when Mr. Quay had taken the oath. After he signed the roll he returned to his seat, where he was overwhelmed with congratulations. Within a few minutes hundreds of people had left the floor and galierles, the liorai offerings disappeared from the chamber and the senate resumed its routine.

A bill to provide for subports of entry and delivery in the Hawaiian islands was reported by Mr. Hanna from the commerce committee and passed.

In the House. There were hardly 50 members in their places when the house met. A majority of the members went over to the senate to witness the installation of Senator Quay. Without preliminary business the house went into committee of the whole with Mr. Lawrence (Mass.) In the chair, and took up the bill to revise and codify the postal laws of the United States. The order for its consideration made last week was modified so as to make it a continuing or der, not to interfere with appropriatlon bills, conference reports and pri vate bill day. Mr. Loud (Cai.) in charge of the bill, made a brief explanation of the provisions of the measure and explained in maswer to many in quirles that the bill made no modificatlon of existing statutes regarding railway mail pay, salarles of railway mail clerks or nny of the mooted ques tions regarding the postal service.

The river and harbor appropriation bill passed the house practically as it came from the committee. it carries siightly iess than $60,000,000, of which $23,000,000 is in direct appropriations. The section empowering the president to negotiate with Grent Britain for the maintenance of suitable levels on the Great Lakes was broadened so as to provide for a joint commission to conduct the negotiations.

RIVAL CITIES.

Ashland and Catlettsburg in a Sively Row Over the Federal Judicial District Bill.

Washington, Jan. 16 - The bill which has passed the House and is now before the Senate, dividing Kentucky into two Judicial districts, has caused a jolly row among the people of that State. There are now in Washington two lobbies seeking to it fluence the legislation. The bill is an important one for the State, and it is not improbable that the contending claims may result in the defeat of the bill altogether.

As the bill passed the House it provided for holding a session of the new the county seat, having been stricken Sheriff. ont by Congressman Pugh and Ashland substituted. This has caused a rivalry among the towns. They are in the same county and only five miles apart. The bar, the banks and the other industries have taken a hand in the fight, and today the jolliest kind of a row is on between the two towns.

Senator Lindsay favors a change from Ashland to Catlettsburg, and Senator Deboe is understood to be similarly inelined. State Senator T. S. SOF DRESS STUFFS.

Remnants are interesting merchandise. Because hest and most desirable goods are soonest sold down to short ends and you pick usable lengths of the season's best stuffs at HALF PRICE Best in sense of good quality and desirable patterns. Bits of 11 to 62 yards. Enough for a child's dress or a length sufficient for a woman's skirt. Half price, sometimes a trifle less than half—here and there a piece reduced not quite half. But the ticket on each tells the exact story. Black and colors. Plain Flannelette Gowns.

Win. McKoy, of Tickahoe, will be one of Mr. James R. Roberson's deputies in the event of the latter's election as the gowns have been selling for $1. All offered now for 75c. Very little sewing, not more than ten minutes work, will convert these pretty gowns into useful bath

No sale shall stay made if you find your money will serve you better than the goods. Trade back. Your good will and the feeling that "Hant's is my store" is worth ten times more to us than any amount we may lose by being good natured. Try us.

The Pittsburg coal fleet has been making things lively the last few days. The present run has been remarkably free from accidents when it is considered that about 11,000 (kin) bushels of coal were shipped. It is one of the best runs of coal made in many years.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company was held in Pittsburg this week. The report of the company showed undivided profits of $495,000 after all charges had been paid. The net profits were about $2,400,000.

The annual report of the State Prison Commission shows that the Eddyville penitentiary was operated last year at a less expense than in any previous year. The same would have been true of the Frankfort prison but for the fact that the institution suffered from three costly fires. On November 30, 1,705 prisoners were confined in the two institutions. Of these 1,550 were regularly employed.

NEW FIRM.

Mr. M. F. Coughlin Buys Mr. C. E. Biggers Interest in the Wells & Biggers' Livery Stable on Market Street.

Mr. M. F. Coughlin Thursday purchased Mr. Charles E. Biggers' interest in the Wells & Biggers' livery stable on Market street, and the business will "THE LOST PARADISE." hereafter be conducted under the firm name of Wells & Coughlin. The new firm will also carry on the undertaking business in connection with their livery business.

Mr. Coughlin has of late years con- by ducted a livery and undertnking business on Third street, just east of the jail, but L. H. Landman, M. D., will hereafter be found at the Market street stand.

The members of the new firm have had years of experience in the business. and are among Maysville's most enterprising citizens. Their many friends wish the new firm success.

Revival services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in this city during March. Rev. J. P. Lowry, of Little Rock, Ark., will conduct the meeting.

CASTOR

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregorie, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatuleney. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS....

> Hundreds testify to the wonderful efficacy of.....

ASTHMA. HAY FEVER and RHEUMATISM

IIICURE

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treachorous diseases. At the first symptom take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good resuits.
